

BITS OF WISDOM

God writes with a pen that never blots, speaks with a tongue that never slips, and helps
with a hand that never fails.

In most churches there are two kinds of people—the saints and the aint's.

To do nothing for fear of making a mistake could be the greatest mistake that you make.

Apathy is our most serious problem—but who cares.

The world cannot be cleaned up with soft soap.

The fear of being laughed at has kept a lot of men from being fools.

It is nice to be important but it's more important to be nice.

There are none so blind as those who do not want to see.

JANUARY TOPIC OF THE MONTH

ACCOUNTABILITY

Moses was selected by God to lead the Children of Israel out of slavery in the land of Egypt. He became responsible to do as God directed him to do, This responsibility was tested constantly by the murmuring and disobedience of the people. Moses did his best but when his patience drew thin he forgot to do as the God directed him, failed to give God the glory, and reaped the consequences of not being able to enter into the land of promise.

Numbers 20:8 Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink. 9 And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him. 10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock? 11 And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also. 12 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.
