

BITS OF WISDOM

A man without principle never draws much interest.

The greatness of our fear shows us the littleness of our faith.

More people worry about the future than prepare for it.

The quickest way to wipe out a friendship is to sponge on it.

It is doubtful that you will carve out much of a future trying to cut too many corners.

If you can laugh at it, you can live with it.

We should exchange problems. Everybody seems to know how to solve the others' fellow's.

No garment is more becoming to a Christian than the cloak of humility.

Love quickens all the senses—except common sense.

TOPIC OF THE MONTH

FRIENDSHIP

Jesus teaches how to treat a friend.

Luke 11:5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?
