

BITS OF WISDOM

A sense of humor is a test of sanity.

God gave women a sense of humor so they could understand the jokes they married.

The open hand holds more fiends than the closed fist.

The big jobs of tomorrow are for the one who is doing today's small jobs as best he can.

A true education must have a dual objective; it must educate you for living and educate you for making a living.

Eloquence is the ability to oppose a popular movement convincingly without being offensive.

Keep smiling. It makes everyone wonder what you've been up to.

A good sermon consists in saying all that is necessary and nothing that is unnecessary.

PRAYERS

APRIL TOPIC OF THE MONTH COMMITMENT

Psalm 37:1 A Psalm of David. Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

7 Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.
