

Bits of Wisdom

You will never have a friend if you must have one without a fault.

The man who coins his conscience into cash will never make the percentage large enough.

The lagging ox is the first slaughtered.

You do not have to worry unless you want to.

If you think you cannot love your enemies, treat your friends a little better.

Good judgment comes from experience, and experience often comes from poor judgment,

Rest satisfied with doing well, and leave others to talk of you as they please.

Take an interest in your future. That's where you'll spend the rest of your life.

Every little frog is great in his own bog.

He, who is afraid of a thing, gives it power over him.

A man without convictions is a tramp on the road that leads to the land of nowhere.

JANUARY THEME “STARTING OVER”

Romans 6:1 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:
