

BITS OF WISDOM

A chief component of success is inward satisfaction.

Never is work without reward or reward without work.

Worrying over trifles is wasted time and energy.

Some golfers have trouble telling the hole truth.

When up to your ears in debt, it is hard to have a cents of humor.

Blowing your own horn gives you the reputation of being windy.

There seems to always be an open season for those hunting faults.

Satan is not a good employer just because he pays more than he promises.

Your life will be no better than the plans you make and the actions you take.

If you want to be successful, start working on a job even before you have to.

THEME OF MONTH
MY SPIRITUAL GROWTH

Romans 12:1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;
