

BITS OF WISDOM

If you are self-made, then you have no one to blame but self.

You do not need a license to hunt trouble.

It's hard to explain why we complain.

The fewer desires. The more peace.

We are the sons of our own deeds.

Some people have a heart as big as all outdoors—and just as polluted.

People take heart when you give them yours.

The lighter the motorist's head gets, the easier it is to fill his shoes.

If health is wealth—how come it's tax free.

We have observed that many self-made men make their heads oversized.

If you want to be the picture of health, you'd better have a happy frame of mind.

TOPIC OF THE MONTH

INSPIRATION

The story of David and Goliath is an inspiration of a young man who trusted in God to take care of him.

1 Sam 17:31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him.

32 And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

37 David said moreover, The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the LORD be with thee.
