

Bits of Wisdom

You will never have a friend if you must have one without a fault.

The man who coins his conscience into cash will never make the percentage large enough.

The lagging ox is the first slaughtered.

You do not have to worry unless you want to.

If you think you cannot love your enemies, treat your friends a little better.

Good judgment comes from experience, and experience often comes from poor judgment,

Rest satisfied with doing well, and leave others to talk of you as they please.

Take an interest in your future. That's where you'll spend the rest of your life.

Every little frog is great in his own bog.

He, who is afraid of a thing, gives it power over him.

A man without convictions is a tramp on the road that leads to the land of nowhere.

SEPTEMBER THEME KNOWLEDGE

Psalm 119:68 Thou art good, and doest good; teach me thy statutes.

69 The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.

70 Their heart is as fat as grease; but I delight in thy law.

71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.

72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

73 JOD. Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

74 They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in thy word.

FALL SEMINAR

Our seminar is now past history. It was well attend although not as many as we had hoped. There were folks were from six different Churches of Christ as well as some folks from other Churches. Our speakers all did a power point presentation and did it well. It was great to know that they are willing to use technology to improve their preaching. We enjoyed lots of good singing and some very rich fellowship. Our group furnished a very tasty lunch. All in all it was a great and wonderful day in the Lord. Thank you all who made it happen.
MAY GOD BLESS. JEFF
