

BITS OF WISDOM

The farmer does not go to work. He wakes up every morning surrounded by it.

Jesus was content with a stable when He was born that we might have a mansion when we die.

Keep an open mind, but be careful, people will throw a lot of garbage into it.

Think of your own sins and you will be more understanding of the sins of others.

It is easy to raise doubts about duties we do not want to perform.

We break our backs for the devil, and then go limping to the Lord for help.

If you plan to leave footprints in the sands of time, make sure they lead in the right direction.

You cannot wash away the past in the tears of regret.

Some people draw from the well of wisdom with a short rope.

THEME OF MONTH

CHOOSE TO REJOICE

Psalm 33:33:1 Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.
